Numb. 15290. [1005]

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 2, to Saturday September 6, 1800.

Downing-Street, September 6, 1800.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, has been this Day received at the Office of the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Lieutenant-General Sir James Pulteney, Bart. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Renown, at Sea, 27th August 1800.

SIR,

I Have the Honor to inform you, that the Fleet, on board of which the Troops under my Command were embarked, arrived before the Harbour of Ferrol, on the 25th Instant.

I determined immediately to make a landing, with a View, if practicable, to attempt the Town of Ferrol, being certain, if I found either the Strength of the Place or the Force of the Enemy too great to justify an Attack, that in the landing there was no considerable Risk.

The Disembarkation was effected, without Opposition, in a small Bay near Cape Prior; the Reserve followed by the other Troops as they landed immediately ascended a Ridge of Hills adjoining to the Bay; just as they had gained the Summit the Rifle Corps fell in with a Party of the Enemy which they drove back. I have to regret that Lieutenant-Colonel Stewart, who commanded this Corps, was wounded on the Occasion. At Day break the following Morning a considerable Body of the Enemy was driven back by Major-General the Earl of Cavan's Brigade, supported by some other Troops, so that we remained in complete Possession of the Heights which overlook the Town and Harbour of Ferrol; but from the Nature of the Ground, which is steep and rocky, unfortunately this Service could not be performed without Loss: the 1st Battalion of the 52d Regiment had the principal Share in this Action. The Enemy lost about One Hundred Men killed and wounded, and Thirty or Forty Prisoners.

I had now an Opportunity of observing minutely the Situation of the Place, and of forming, from the Reports of Prisoners, an Idea of the Strength of the Enemy; when, comparing the Difficulties which presented themselves, and the Risk attendant on Failure on one Hand, with the Prospect of Success and the Advantages to be derived from it on the other, I came to the Determination of reimbarking the Troops, in order to proceed without Delay on my further Destination. The Embarkation was effected the same Evening in perfect Order, and without Loss of any Kind.

The Spirit and Alacrity shewn by the Troops merit every Commendation; and if Circumstances had admitted of their being led against the Enemy, I should have had every Reason to expect Success.

I am under the greatest Obligations to the Admiral Sir John Borlase Warren and the Officers of the Navy, for the judicious Arrangements made for the Landing and Reimbarkation of the Troops, and the Activity with which they were put in Execution. The immediate Direction of this Service was intrusted to Sir Edward Pellew, who performed it in a Manner highly creditable to himself, and advantageous to the Service.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JAMES PULTENEY.

Copy of a Letter from the Earl of St. Vincent, K. B. Admiral of the White, &c. to Evan Nepean, Eſq; dated off Uſhant, September 2, 1800.

SIR,

FOR the Information of the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty I encloſe a Letter this Moment received from Rear-Admiral Sir John Borlaſe Warren, of His Majeſty's Ship Renown, and another from Captain Keats, of His Majeſty's Ship the Boadicea. I am, &c.

ST. VINCENT.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Sir John Borlaſe Warren, K. B. to Admiral the Earl of Saint Vincent, K. B. dated Renown, Bay of Playa de Dominos, Auguſt 27, 1800.

MY LORD,

I Beg Leave to inform you that the Squadron and Convoy under my Command arrived off this Bay on the 25th Inſtant, without having fell in with any Thing excepting the St. Vincent Schooner, who had parted from Captain Curzon.

General Sir James Pulteney having deſired that the Troops might be diſembatked, I directed Sir Edward Pellew to ſuperintend that Service, aſſiſted by Captains Hood, Dalrymple, Fyffe, and Stackpool, with Captains Guion, Searle, and Young, which was moſt ably performed on the ſame Night in the Bay above-mentioned, after a Fort of Eight Twenty-four-Pounders had been ſilenced by the Fire of the Impetueux, Brilliant, Cynthia, and St. Vincent Gun-Boat; the whole Army were on Shore without the Loſs of a Man, together with Sixteen Field-Pieces, attended by Seamen from the Men of War to carry Scaling Ladders, and to get the Guns up the Heights above Ferrol.

On the Morning of the 26th the General informed me, by Letter, that from the Strength of the Country and Works, no further Operations could be carried on, and that it was his Intention to re-embark the Troops, which I ordered to take place, and the Captains of the Squadron to attend; and I have the Satisfaction to add that, by their indefatigable Exertion, the whole Army, Artillery, and Horſes, were again taken on board the Tranſports and Men of War before Day-break on the 27th.

I ſhall immediately proceed with the Squadron and Convoy, in purſuance of the latter Part of your Lordſhip's Orders.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

J. B. WARREN.
